Most Holy Body and Blood

"Taking the book of the covenant, he read it aloud to the people, who answered, 'All that the Lord has said, we will heed and do.' Then he took the blood and sprinkled it on the people, saying, 'This is the blood of the covenant that the Lord has made with you in accordance with all these words of His.'"

We celebrate this day which makes us a truly special people. Chosen by God, we are offered a chance to respond to His invitation to be the people peculiarly His own. As the people accepted the invitation of Moses, we too listen to and observe the words of the covenant, the ten commandments. Moses was the mediator and the people responded. We understand the terms of the agreement and commit ourselves to carry them out. God took the initiative, explained the requirements and conditions and we said 'yes.' He then sealed it with His blood.

The prophet Jeremiah spoke of the 'new covenant,' not carved on stone but written in the heart. Jesus came to initiate that covenant and as He met with His friends for the Last Supper He told them to 'do this in memory of me.' Every time we celebrate the Eucharist we renew the one covenant sealed in His Blood... We are fed with the gift of the Lord Himself. Jesus is the mediator of the new covenant and we respond with deep faith in His real presence among us.

On this day we call by the Latin name 'Corpus Christi' may we express our thanks for the gift of the Eucharist, ask the Lord to make us worthy to receive Him, and to deepen our faith in the wonderful mystery which unites us with Christ and one another.

What the Lord has said we will heed and do.
